

BRADLEY PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT
PUBLIC USE OF THE LIBRARY POLICY

SECTION 9: MEETING ROOMS, EXHIBIT AREA, AND BULLETIN BOARDS
PART 2: Study Rooms

The Bradley Public Library District offers study rooms in both the adult and children's areas. Rooms are designed to accommodate four people. These rooms are on a first come, first served basis. No reservations will be taken for these rooms. The Library may reserve use of one or more study rooms for programs or meetings as deemed necessary by Library staff. Users of study rooms must adhere to all applicable library policies. The Library reserves the right to limit usage that violates the purposes of the Library's policy.

Approved: March 21, 2012; Revised: September 16, 2015